HAPPY
DIWALI

Diwali dates back to ancient times in India, as a festival after the summer harvest in the Hindu calendar month of Kartika. The festival is mentioned in Sanskrit scriptures such as the Padma Purana, the Skanda Purana both completed in second half of 1st millennium AD but believed to have been expanded from a core text from an earlier era. The diyas (lamps) are mentioned in Skanda Purana to symbolically represent parts of sun, the cosmic giver of light and energy to all life, who seasonally transitions in the Hindu calendar month of Kartik. Hindus in some regions of India associate Diwali with the legend of Yama and Nachiketa on Kartika amavasya. The Nachiketa story about right versus wrong, transient wealth versus true wealth, ignorance versus knowledge is recorded in Katha Upanishad composed in 1st millennium BC.

King Harsha in the 7th century Sanskrit play Nagananda mentions Diwali as Deepapratipadutsava, where lamps were lit and newly engaged brides and grooms were given gifts. Rajasekhara referred to Diwali as Dipamalika in his 9th century Kavyamimamsa, wherein he mentions the tradition of homes being whitewashed and oil lamps decorating homes, streets and markets in the night. The Persian traveller and historian Al Biruni, in his 11th century memoir on India, wrote Diwali being celebrated by Hindus on New Moon day of the month of Kartika.

Diwali
also known as Deepavali and
the “festival of lights”,
is an ancient Hindu festival
celebrated
in
autumn every year.
The festival spiritually
signifies the victory
of light over darkness,
knowledge over ignorance,
good over evil,
and hope over despair.

ONLINE EXAMINATION

::: SUMMARY :::

Under the guide line of the Chief Advisor and Trust Mentor Res. Shri A.U.Patel Sir, we have started new internal examination process.

We have started Group Discussion, Project Work, Seminar/Workshop and Online Examinations.

At the mid of the october we have successfully implemented an online examination of Foundation and Elective subject of all the students of BCA college.

An online examination expermint has been very enthusiastically welcome and enjoyed by the students.

Benefits of Online Examination:

- + Paperless Examination
- + On the spot result
- + Time Saving
- + Easy to use for students
- + and many more.....

Project initiatives had been taken by Direcotr, Navgujarat College of Computer Aplications, Dr. Vimal Pandya and successfully completed the examinations.

EW :::::

It was my first & great experience to give in such a way. I hope that all exams should be conducted in such a way.

- NIKHIL PARMAR (SEM 1)

Nice idea! All exams should be done in same manner.

- KHANCHANDANI RAHUL (SEM 1)

This is a simple & easy exam. Paperless exam concept is very nice.

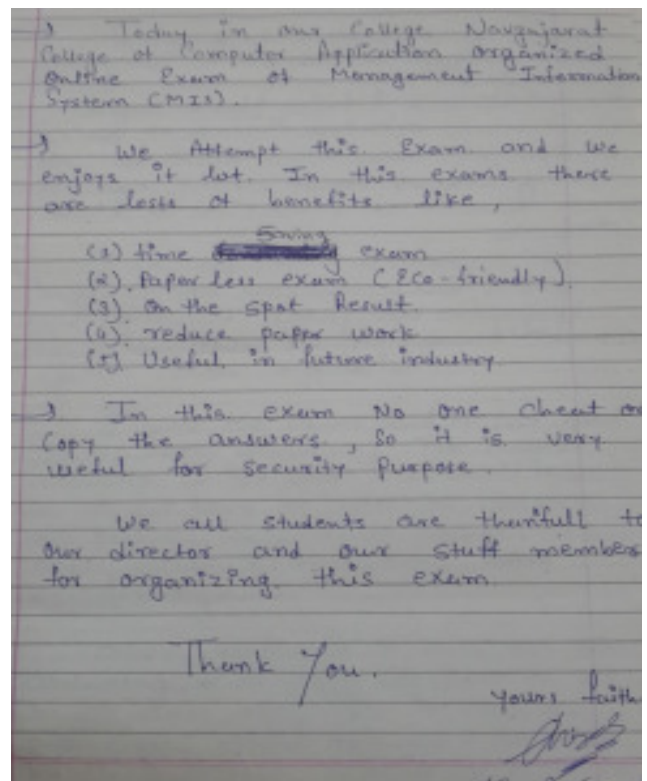

- SHIVANI KAPADIYA (SEM 1)

Good use of technology, Very nice exams.

- CHAUHAN HARDIK (SEM 1)

Excellent and Very effective. Time saving exams.

- SOLANKI GAURANG (SEM 1)

Everything is online nowadays. Even payment for hotel booking, everything online.
 Campus should adopt to these "Electronic Age"
 and its students and if necessary for use to give online exams, because in near future almost everything would be online.

So we requested the "Director" to make us give an online exam. They understood our request and arranged an online exam for "Management Information System" in the computer lab.

I gave the exams and it felt good.
 It has many advantages. The biggest advantage is its paperless; which means
 we do not have to write the answers on papers; which saves papers. This makes online examinations more eco-friendly.

Other advantage is it is less time consuming, so we do not have to sit in the class room for hours. The supervisors would not have to wait for the students to complete the exam so they could collect the papers which interu mation there is.

Yours Faithfully
 Daksh P.

It was a good experience to give examination Online. It is very accurate system and less time consuming also.

We get result online after completion of exam so it is good for student they get result immediately so they have no tension about result.

It decreases paperwork so faculty also having no tension of checking the exam.

It also having some advantages if PC shutdown by any electrical problem then student have to give exam again. In system if anyone don't tick any of Radio button then it should give an alert that you had not checked any of Radio Button.

So, it is good system to give exam but also with improving the disadvantages and also handicapped people by hand they give exam properly.
 here is a offline application but if there is online
 examination there is a chances of hacking.

Yours Faithfully
 Daksh P. Mandavara

ACADEMIC VISIT FINAL YEAR STUDENTS

We have conducted one academic visit in a reputed I.T. company at Ahmedabad. The main purpose of the visit is that students were a little bit confused in their field and wanted to know actually what is the industry need, how they work and how was the environment, what is the infrastructure etc. We will try to fill up the gap between industry and students.

5th Semester students Sneha Shah and Shanavaz Shaikh take leadership under the guidance of Dr. Vimal Pandya (Director, NGCCA) and organized an academic visit on 26th October 2015.

Students were very happy after completing their visit and suggest for more academic visits.

Summary

Today 26th October our college conducted an academic visit in Exxide company.

It was a good experience. In that Exxide company provide many IT related things like staffing, training and many more.

In Exxide I had one of the discussions with our teachers and students about IT industry.

They told us about various vehicles of IT like Network, IMS, CRM, multimedia fields.

And also explain which direction of a field is best and how we can prepare for this.

They also inform about various certificates and degrees that will be useful in future.

I am very thankful of Mr. Vimal Pandya Sir for giving this opportunity.

I request them to arrange many academic visits like this.

Thank you
Your student
